AMS news notes

The Appomattox Middle School Science Club ventured to the Natural Bridge Caverns and Wax Museum on Friday, April 17, 1981. Underground rock formations were observed. And it was cold down there! The tour guide turned out the lights to demonstrate how very dark it is in caverns. She also pointed out that if one were to live down there in the dark, in a year's time he/she would go blind. The club members also observed bats in their natural habitat. The Natural Bridge Wax Museum had many interesting displays on American History and the Last Supper. This was quite appropriate since the trip was on Good Friday. The Students, teachers, and parents participating on the annual Science Club trip enjoyed the outing as an educational experience.

Winners of SCA Menu contest at AMS are Kenny Richardson, Jeff O'Brien, Rhonda Morgan, Lonny Hamlett, Frances Cashwell, Monique Eliott, Brenda Franklin, Paul Humbles, Tina Barksdale, Karren Kelso, Ed Doss, Rena Hammer, Terresa Taylor, Gina McCormick, and Beth Granoto.

There are a number of students in Mrs. J. Wilkerson's homeroom who have maintained high academic achievement. These students are recognized by having their names placed on the class honor roll. To make honor roll a student must not have any grade below a B on their report card for any given grading period. Students who have an overall B average, with no grade below a C, are recognized under Honorable Mention. Mrs. Wilkerson would like to take this time to publicly recognize those students in her homeroom who have made honor roll or honorable mention at some time during the school year.

HONOR ROLL, Patricia Lewis, Jason Justis, Eugie Taylor, Angel Goode, Lisa Campbell, Darlene Hix, Clinton Saunders.
Honorable Mention - Stan Slagle, April Moore, Pattie Wright, Angel Goode, Lisa Campbell, Darlene Hix, Clinton Saunders.

Why Education Is Important To Me

Education is important to me because I want to become a "worthy somebody". I also want to grow up to be an intelligent and a dependable person. To do this I need an education.

Education is a system of receiving knowledge and practicing knowledge. I can do these things and my aim is to improve my knowledge.

There are many people today with a good brain who waste it on drugs, alcohol and other things. I have a brain and I am going to use it wisely.

I need to master all of the educational skills I can from my junior high and high school years so it will prepare me for my college years.

Education is my life's future. It will bring me through my school years, my hopes of college years, and also the years of my career.

My career requires a good education I am depending on a good education from the schools in Appomattox County and college of my choice.

I am determined to go on and become a "worthy somebody". A "worthy somebody" means, in my own opinion, a person who is working to obtain a good education.

I feel that someday I will become a great leader and teacher of the next generation with the ability to help improve education, I hope to influence the lives of many people.

Fun night slated

The Appomattox Middle School PTA is planning a FUN NIGHT, Friday, May 8 beginning at 5:30 p.m. and continuing until 9:00 p.m.

Hots dogs, brownies, cookies, cupcakes, potato chips and drinks will be on sale.

Activities for all age groups are planned including bingo, sponge throwing, fortune telling and a cake walk. A haunted house, and talent contest round out the entertainment for the evening.

Donations from various Appomatox businesses make possible the drawing for doorprizes, and auction and a raffle.

Admission is 25c and this entitles you to be eligible for the doorprize which is a Polyshell System Car Cleaning Kit.

Immediately following the auction, a drawing will be held for a three-piece lighted wall unit donated by Thomasville Furniture. Chances will be sold during the evening.

Fun Night is the only fund-raising project of the Appomattox Middle School PTA and members urge the public to support this event.
